MRS. SORRELS

Foreword +

This was the year-

The final year for some of us, the beginning for others, of our sometimes harried, usually happy, but always busy, years at D.H.S.

This was the year . . . for the assembly programs in the new auditorium . . . the resounding echoes of hammers and saws as the building seemed almost torn apart and old rooms were reformed into the new cafeteria and classrooms.

In times to come we will look back often on this year, which, though it closed those first stages of our lives, was only the beginning of greater ones to come.

Senior Class History

"What we are to be, we are now be coming."

When we first came to Durham High, we were "Skins"—individuals from different schools, different homes, and with different ideas. We realized that the next three years would be the most wonderful we'd ever spend.

The preface in our book was Orientation Week. After this followed the election of the Sophomore Class officers: President, Johnson Ross: Vice-President, Morris Weisner: Secretary, Mary Maddry; and Treasurer, Michael May.

The first chapter in our book was very important in that it shaped the events of our school days for the coming three years. We joined clubs, societies, and Student Council committees. Many of us signed up for Hi-Ricket and Messenger Staffs, and went out for various teams. We bought Student Tickets and sat in the bleachers yelling for the Bulldogs who came through with a tie with Reynolds High of Winston Salem for the State Championship. Taking part in Homecoming, we elected Elaine Herndon as our candidate. The Sophomore Class showed their creative ability by having the winning floats in the Parade.

Our first touch of social life was the Christmas Dance, "Beneath the Christmas Tree," sponsored by the Student Council. Soon after followed our exams. We then united in the presentation to the school of "Sophomore Stunt Day," and later produced a screamingly successful "Backward Wedding."

The second chapter in our book was our

Junior Year. We had then hit a happy medium in that we were not leaders but then we weren't Skins. We started our year by electing Morris Weisner, President; Johnson Ross, Vice-President; Bar bara Fortune, Secretary; and Michael May, Trasurer.

Florence Grantham was our candidate for Homecoming Queen. Again our class won top honors in the Parade. Our wonderful football team won Ecastern AAA honors, only to lose to Greensboro for the State title.

Next we attended the Claistmas Dance, "Silver Belles," with the girls asking the boys. Boys, do you remember how sweet you were beforehand!

Talent Show, "Our Best to You." The highlight of the show was the French Can-Can Girls. With our money we made from the Show, we gave the Seniors a wonderful going-away dance in the form of the Junior-Senior Prom. "Cherry Pink and Apple-Blossom White" was the theme. Much to our delight, the Seniors gave a superb performance of the entertaining play, "Our Town."

Seven of our classmates were inducted into the National Honor Society, which was quite an honor. Also delegates were chosen for Girls' and Boys' State.

In May we again elected officers, this time for the Student Council and the Scn ior Class. Jim Herring, Johnson Ross, Eller Harris, and Coleman Markham were chosen for the Student Council; while Cecil Cooke, Jr., Morris Weisner, Gail Joyner, and J. D. Welfons held honors for the Senior Class.

The next chapter of our book will be the most remembered. It was our third—and last. We began the year as leaders—Presidents of various organizations, captains of teams, and leaders in our Student government.

The Class of '56 was accredited with the first Fall Festival that was ever held at D. H. S. Again el eted by her classmates, Florence reigned as "Fall Festival" Queen. For the third year, our class walked off with the Parade prizes. Our football team came through with the Eastern AAA Championship under the excellent leadership of captains Johnson Ross and Jimmy Markham.

In an impressive candlelight ceremony, forty-nine Seniors were tapped into the National Honor Society.

Soon followed the first Senior Day at D. H. S. With Cecil presiding, the Senior Class gave to the school a well-remembered auditorium program. All Seniors wore their "Sunday best" and really looked wonderful.

"Golden Funtasy" was the theme of our Christmas Dance. Amid gold and green decorations, the Student Body danced to Seventh Heaven and back.

"Ten Little Indians" was chosen for the Senior Play. With Beverly Everitt and Cranny Cranford in the leading roles, and the capable directing of Mrs. Sorrels, we really "did ourselves proud."

Our classmates now became the stars of the basketball and baseball teams. All of a sudden it was time for the "Junior Senior." Now we were the guests, and it almost seemed like a farewell party. We tinally were called to the office to be measured for our caps and gowns, And then, the last week! Awards Day, Class Night, the Baccalaureate Sermon, and Graduation itself. Our last page was the marvelous Graduation Dance. This was the ending of our wonderful book of high school days

Now that we are Alumni, it is hard to believe that we cannot relive our wonderful times. We can only read about them, hoping that others on their road to success may be rewarded with as magnificent an education in books and good times as we.

"There is no way to live again The time that we have lost, And all our riches on this earth. Could never pay the cost; Each hour and each second is Beyond the last per al. With every movement of the clock That hangs upon the wall; We connot turn the minutes back To stay the hands of time. Or melt away the mountain that W∈did not try to climb; Each moment is a particle That quickly disappears And every moment multiplies By days and months and years; So let us make the second count And let us concentrate On doing all the good we can Before it is too late." CLASS OF CHIS

Anne Clark, Treasurer; Douglas Kuld, Vice-President; Betsy Christmas, Secretary; Russell Hollers, President

As Juniors we learned the technique of selling tags, that is, football tags to all our D. H. S. friends.

As the end of fall semester drew near we began hearing about some sort of talent show we were supposed to give soon. After exams the talk grew louder and louder; soon we spoke of nothing else. We signed up for committees and the production finally began to take shape. The theme of our 1956 Junior Talent Show was "Club 11" and we felt it worthy of the distinction of being the first given in the new auditorium.

We nominated officers for our big senior year and were then faced with deciding who to elect.

At last we began work on the Junior-Senior Prom. Day and night we labored; finally the decorations were finished. All too soon the dance was history and we had only memories lett.

Now we face our Senior year, and we feel that the experiences we have gained during this year will help us to meet the future with wisdom.

We were challenged to step in line and like a well-disciplined soldier we fought a fight. After a week of orientation and discovering "who was who" we elected very capable leaders. What fun it was with such a cooperative group to make our floats, our very first ones.

First, we worked together on the budget drive and homeroom decoration contest.

Our next worry was raising money for our class. We finally decided on sponsoring a student-faculty game, which was a great success. Then second semester we sold stationery engraved with the school emblem.

The Sophomores were well-represented in the Talent Show, on the Varsity Football and Basketball teams. The Sophomore teams were an inspiration to the school.

"On to Victory" dear old "skins" and keep up the good work and spirit at D. H. S.

This was a year of work for the Council. We started the year with a gay party a trophy polishing session the Saturday before the opening of school. We welcomed the confused Sophs with a helpful Orientation Week program and later received their help on our Standing Committees. We went over the top on our Budget Drive, and so were able to have a very nice Christmas Dance, "Golden Fantasy."

After several meetings of the Student Body, it was decided that we should hold a Courtesy Week to foster better student relations.

It was a big success, even if we did get aggravated with the liners dividing the hall and making us walk on the right side.

As the year drew to a close, the time came for us to step down and give our places to the newly elected rising Juniors and Seniors, the new Student Council,

For Christmas we gave our advisor, Mrs. Lois Vick, a silver bowl as a small remembrance of all the things she has done for us. We celebrated the Yule season at Mary's wonderful open house.

We also, were treated to a demonstration of stage lighting by Leamond Dean, heard a delightful presentation of the "Christmas Carol" in radio-script form, saw several exceedingly hu morous interpretations of some of Shakespeare's mimortal scenes, gave a medal to our outstanding senior, and presented the school with a make-up container

This year we really had a fine time with such programs as Mrs. Tillett's slides about Mexico. playing Spanish Bingo, sinco g Spanish songs, Anne playing her mandolin, and listening to the "Harmony Four."

Toward the end of first semester we discussed the possibility of joining the Spanish National Honor Society. In February we had the special pleasure of hearing a charming girl from Guate mala who told us a great deal about her country. Our Social in April was enjoyed by all who at the social in May we cheefed officers for '56 and '57.

The labrary Club, which has social entertain ment along with programs, also enjoys serving faculty and pupils, making displays and exhibits, and helping to erable a greater love of books and their contribution to a fuller life.

For four consecutive years our scrapbook has won a trophy at the annual convention of the North Carolina High School Library Association. This year the scrapbook is dedicated to Mrs. 1998 Patton and named Miss Pove's "Dove let."

The annual United Nations Party this year

bonored foreign students in Durham High. Pen Pals are making friends with pupils in other countries

We sponsored Book Week Assembly with Miss Jane Wilson as guest speaker, and a Recruitment Program with Mrs. Spears Hicks featuring Librarianship as a Career for members and twenty invited guests from the Junior High Schools

The Party honoring the senior members of the Club was a pleasant finale to a year filled with varied and happy experiences

This was the year the Concert Choir did new and different things. For the first time we gave an operetta, "The Pirates of Penzeance," on the stage of the new auditorium and everyone went around humming times about preates and policemen. We took part in the annual Christmas Carol Service and an inspiring Easter Program We almost didn't make it to District Contest in High Point, but we had a good time. We'll never forget our trip to Greensboro and the Music Festival. Our year was ended by our first Spring Concert in the new auditorium

If something unusually wrong didn't come up, then something was bound to be wrong with the essue. Everyone laughed at the early deadline, but managed to get all the copy in, one way or the other. Somehow every issue came out on time

Mary was always nagging the editors to our "repeat performance" for a Medalist rating

their articles in on time, but that was futile nagging

Some of the lucky staff members had the privibee of invading New York, and it was pretty hard to work with them for the three months preceding the trip. We were certainly proud of our "repeat performance" for a Medalist rating

This was the Year for the BMC, too. After we elected officers in January, we realized that to have a little deal of the late o presented to a most appreciative audience. The funds raised provided a most exciting trip to identify, and who cares about peeling, simburnifaces, and peroxided hair anyway.

Girls' Monogram Club

All of us in the GMC had a very joyful year. Much work was done towards the improvement of our three main sports—volleyball, basketball, and softball.

Through on "talents," we obtained money to make our trips to Greensboro, and High Point to the annual Play Days

In May we elected officers for the oncoming year. Our Seniors were given their bon-voyage and everyone is anxiously waiting for school to begin in September for more good times in GMC!

Wasn't it a great year for the G.A.A.! If you've noticed the G.A.A.'s looking a little climb-bier now than they did last fall, it's because they have been sampling so much of the food they were selling to make money for those fun-filled trips to Greensboro and High Point.

We were entertained by Miss Vickers from

Belks, who spoke to us about make-up and Kenneth Willett who sang and played the guitar

Our afternoons were filled with volley-ball, basketball, softball, and tennis practice

All in all our year was a pretty active and enjoyable one.
